1. PURPOSE

The Company recognises that its responsibilities are long term in nature, and that the long term prosperity of the economy and the wellbeing of members depend on a healthy environment, social cohesion and good governance within the Company’s operations. 3. ESG DEFINED

3.1 ESG – refers to Environmental, Social and Governance factors.

- (a) Environmental Factors: refers to issues affecting the natural environment incorporating such issues as greenhouse gas emissions, climate change, resource use, waste management, water scarcity and damage to biodiversity.
- (b) Social Factors: refers to issues, policies and processes affecting individuals whether they are employees, customers, suppliers or members of the local or broader community. Social issues include human and labour management, occupational health and safety, supply chain management, bribery and corruption and the issues relating to conflict zones and community relations.
- (c) Governance Factors: refers to the system of internal controls, policies and procedures regarding how companies or assets are run or ‘governed’ and in particular the alignment of a company’s board and management with the ultimate owners of the company, its shareholders. Governance issues include board composition and skills, executive remuneration, accounting and audit practices.
- (d) These factors tend to share a number of characteristics that tend to distinguish them from the more mainstream financial and business considerations such as:
 - (i) They are generally qualitative in nature and not easily quantifiable in a monetary sense;
 - (ii) They reflect externalities not as yet readily captured by markets or risk models;

- (iii) They tend to manifest over the medium to longer-term;
- (iv) They tend to emerge as high profile issues of public concern; and
- (v) They are increasingly becoming the focus of both government regulation and intervention.
